

Cover letters provide applicants with an opportunity to elaborate on their experiences and how those skills translate to a position within the ASUW. This document outlines our association's expectations for cover letters, a potential template format for your cover letter, and a list of available campus resources.

OUR EXPECTATIONS

- Maintain a professional writing style
- All submitted cover letters should be individually tailored, never a form letter
- One page limit
- Take advantage of available resources before submitting your application
- Only PDF documents will be accepted
